

INDIVIDUALIZED MAJOR

International Trade

REQUIRED COURSES

The Individualized Major consists of at least 36 credits at the 2000-level or higher (formerly 200-level); at least 18 credits must be offered by the College granting your degree.

Research Methods

You must include a research methods or research course to satisfy part of your information literacy competency requirement. Possible courses include: ECON 2201 (218) AND ECON 2202 (219) Intermediate Micro- and Macroeconomic Theory; SOCI 3201 (205) Methods of Social Research; or a research course in another relevant department.

Capstone

Every individualized major must satisfy a capstone requirement. Therefore, your plan of study must include INTD 4600W (295W) Capstone course, or INTD 4697W (296W) Senior thesis, or an acceptable alternative.

Writing

You must include another writing-intensive course in your major, beside the capstone. This will normally be a course that is designated “W” in the course catalog.

Experiential Learning

Study abroad, internships, and/or research are strongly recommended.

Foreign Language

In any international field of study, advanced foreign language skills are strongly recommended.

RELEVANT PREREQUISITES

Introductory micro and macro-economics [ECON 1201(111) and 1202 (112)] are required for all upper level economics courses. Intermediate micro and macro economics [ECON 2201 (218) and/or 2202 (219)] are required for most upper level economics courses. The more quantitative BADM courses have a number of prerequisites. Upper-level communication courses typically have prerequisites as well.

RELEVANT COURSES

This is not a complete list. Please consult the catalog and then check that the courses are taught regularly by looking at PeopleSoft listings and talking with your faculty advisors.
